PACIFIC MOUNTAIN REGION GENERAL MEETING 2019 May 30 – June 2 in Langley, B.C.

For Such a Time as This Inaugural General Meeting of the Pacific Mountain Regional Council runs from 7pm Thursday May 30th – 12noon (ish) Sunday June 2nd, 2019 at the Langley Events Centre, in Langley BC. We are gathering with acknowledgement and respect, as guests on the traditional territory of the Kwantlen First Nation.

From Whitehorse in the North, to the coastal islands on the West, to the mountain town of Banff in the East, and across the hills and valleys, watersheds and plains of our Region, United Church people of all ages will gather the 2019 General Meeting of the Pacific Mountain Region. We'll gather as delegates and leaders, as volunteers, visitors and observers, as participants and leaders of the Children's Program and the Youth Program, and more. We'll pray, play and explore what God is up to. We're excited to get into the questions of where the Spirit is at work, and how we will participate in that work. The sacred story Esther will support us "for such a time as this". Yes, there will be technical work to do but it won't be just business as usual.

Attendees: Members from each Congregation and Community of Faith Members of the Order of Ministry and Other Ministry Personnel are invited to this gathering. Communities of Faith are asked to elect representatives to attend the meeting.

Children and Youth at the General Meeting: The age-specific Children and Youth Program at the General Meeting provide the opportunity for up fifty-five children and youth, ages 8 – 18, from across our Pacific Mountain Region to gather, build a welcoming and inclusive community, practice being followers of Jesus, and learn about the governance of our United Church. We are so excited to continue the powerful tradition of making space for the youngest generations in our church. More information on Children & Youth at this meeting is on the St. Andrew's table in the Narthex.
