Minister's Message

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

- Matthew 4:18-20

Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.”

- Matthew 16:16-18.

Siblings in Christ,

What does it mean to be a member of the United Church? It's a more complicated question than it seems. It's like the word "friend." A friend is someone I feel mutual affection and concern for. I enjoy their company. But in the social media age, it also means someone whose posts I want to see, and vice versa. There is significant overlap, to the extent that unfriending someone in the second sense can be fraught because it feels like rejecting them as a friend in the first sense.

Similarly, to be a “member” means to belong, but it also means to be on the Historic Roll of the congregation and entitled to serve on the Board and perform other roles. Again, the overlap can be fraught. If you have been making cookies for the Church bake sale for the last thirty years but I say you’re not allowed to serve on the Board because you’re not a member, it can feel like I am saying you don’t belong – despite your long history with the congregation.

When did the Church begin? The “proper” answer that we learn in Sunday School may be Peter’s confession of Jesus as Messiah. But the Church as the collection of Jesus’ disciples began earlier, when Jesus said to them, “come, follow me.” For the Reformers in particular, that affirmation of faith (“you are the Messiah, the Christ”) is critical, and thus our policy is that you become a member when you make an informed profession of faith in Jesus Christ. However, this occurs in the context of worship, or to put it another way, as a disciple in a community of disciples. So, our current policy is a compromise between those two understandings.

For this reason, as it currently stands, our denominational policy is that only members can serve in certain roles. It’s also true that each of us understands membership and a profession of faith differently. To some, to profess faith in Jesus and become a member means that you are at or near the end of your faith journey. Others understand it as a first step on the journey and a commitment to keep walking it. Some understand a profession of faith as an assent to the literal meaning of every word; some understand it as the embrace of a mystery to be contemplated and wrestled with. All of which is a long-winded way of saying, if you are not yet a member, I invite you to have a conversation with me about how you understand membership, and how you might join the church in a way that celebrates the ways you already belong, and uses language that you can speak with integrity.

Yours in Christ,
Tim
